MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE CANNABIS FOR PRIVATE PURPOSES BILL, 2020

1. PURPOSE OF BILL

- 1.1 In Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and Others v Prince: 2018 (6) SA 393 (CC) (the Judgment), the Constitutional Court declared that—
- (a) section 4(b) of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act, 1992 (Act No. 140 of 1992) (“the Drugs Act”), read with Part III of Schedule 2 of that Act, is unconstitutional and therefore invalid to the extent that it criminalises the use or possession of cannabis by an adult in private for that adult’s personal consumption in private;
 - (b) section 5(b) of the Drugs Act, read with Part III of Schedule 2 and with the definition of “deal in” (“cultivation” is regarded as to “deal in”) in section 1 of that Act, is unconstitutional and therefore invalid to the extent that it criminalises the cultivation of cannabis by an adult in a private place for that adult’s personal consumption in private; and
 - (c) section 22A(9)(a)(i) of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965) (“the Medicines Act”), read with Schedule 7 of Government Notice No. R. 509 of 2003, is unconstitutional and therefore invalid to the extent that it criminalises the use or possession of cannabis by an adult in private for that adult’s personal consumption in private.
- 1.2 The Constitutional Court held that the aforementioned provisions limited the right to privacy entrenched in section 14 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (“the Constitution”), and that the State did not satisfy the Court that these provisions are reasonable and justifiable in an open and democratic society based on human dignity, equality and freedom as required by section 36 of the Constitution. The Constitutional Court suspended its order of invalidity from the 18th of September 2018 until the 18th of September 2020 to give Parliament an opportunity to correct the constitutional defects in the Drugs Act and the Medicines Act and granted interim relief by way of a reading-in to the provisions of the two Acts to ensure that during the period of suspension of invalidity it would not be a criminal offence for an adult person—
- (a) to use or be in possession of cannabis in private for his or her personal consumption in private; and
 - (b) to cultivate cannabis in a private place for his or her personal consumption in private.
- 1.3 The link between hemp, as a variety of cannabis, and cannabis has resulted in several restrictions on the production of hemp. The wide scale commercial production of hemp is prohibited in terms of the Drugs Act and the Medicines Act. The Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development has requested that the Drugs Act and the Medicines Act, be amended to provide for the commercial production of hemp in South Africa.
- 1.4 The Cannabis for Private Purposes Bill (“the Bill”), aims to—
- (a) respect the right to privacy of an adult person to possess cannabis plant cultivation material; to cultivate a prescribed quantity of cannabis plants; to possess a prescribed quantity of cannabis; and to smoke and consume cannabis;
 - (b) regulate the possession of cannabis plant cultivation material; the cultivation of cannabis plants; the possession of cannabis; and the smoking and consumption of cannabis by an adult person;
 - (c) protect adults and children against the harms of cannabis;
 - (d) provide for the expungement of criminal records of persons convicted of possession or use of cannabis;
 - (e) delete and amend provisions of certain laws; and
 - (f) provide for matters connected therewith.

2. OBJECTS OF BILL

2.1 Clause 1: Definitions and interpretation

2.1.1 Clause 1(1) contains various definitions aimed at facilitating the interpretation of the Bill. Some of the more important definitions that are applicable to other clauses of the Bill are the following:

(a) Cannabis plant cultivation material

Cannabis plant cultivation material is defined as seeds of a cannabis plant and seedlings. Seedling is further defined as a non-flowering cannabis plant that is not taller than 15 centimetres or wider than 15 centimetres, measured according to the criteria prescribed by regulation. A seedling is further not a class of a “cannabis plant” or “cannabis” for purposes of the Bill.

(b) Cannabis plant and cannabis plant equivalent

A cannabis plant is defined as a plant of the genus Cannabis, but excludes hemp, and for purposes of this Bill, an immature cannabis plant and a flowering cannabis plant are classes of a cannabis plant. An immature cannabis plant is defined as a non-flowering cannabis plant that is taller than 15 centimetres or wider than 15 centimetres, measured according to the criteria prescribed by regulation. A flowering cannabis plant is in turn defined as the gametophytic or reproductive state of a cannabis plant in which the plant produces flowers, trichomes and cannabinoids characteristic of cannabis. To regulate the quantity of the different classes of a cannabis plant, the Bill makes use of a concept of “cannabis plant equivalent”, in terms of which two immature cannabis plants are deemed to be the equivalent of one flowering cannabis plant. In the discussion of the clauses of the Bill, a reference to a flowering cannabis plant includes a reference to its cannabis plant equivalent.

(c) Cannabis, cannabis equivalent and THC

Cannabis is defined as the flowering or fruiting tops and the leaves of a cannabis plant that have been separated from the plant (but excludes any seed, seedling, the stalk and branches without any leaf, fruit or flower, and the roots of a cannabis plant) and any substance which contains THC ((-)-trans-delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol). For purposes of this definition fresh cannabis, dried cannabis and cannabis concentrate are classes of cannabis. Dried cannabis is defined as the flowering or fruiting tops and the leaves of a cannabis plant that have been separated from the plant and that have been subjected to a drying process. Fresh cannabis is defined as the flowering or fruiting tops and the leaves of a cannabis plant that have been separated from the plant and that have not been subjected to a drying process. Cannabis concentrate is in turn defined as cannabis that has undergone a process to concentrate the THC content and cannabis solid concentrates and cannabis liquid concentrates are classes of cannabis concentrate. To regulate the quantity of cannabis that may be possessed at any given time, the Bill makes use of the concept of “cannabis equivalent” in terms of which five grams of fresh cannabis, 0,25 gram of cannabis solid concentrates or 0,25 gram of cannabis liquid concentrates is deemed to be equivalent to one gram of dried cannabis. In the discussion of the clauses of the Bill, a reference to dried cannabis includes a reference to its cannabis equivalent.

(d) Hemp

Hemp is defined as a plant of the genus Cannabis which—

- (i) has a concentration of THC in the leaves and flowering heads that does not exceed the percentage as may be prescribed in terms of; and
- (ii) is cultivated under authority of, a law that regulates its cultivation.

(e) Cultivate and harvest

“Cultivate” is defined as including to plant, propagate, nurture, tend, grow or harvest a cannabis plant and “harvest” is in turn defined as to obtain and process cannabis from a cannabis plant.

(f) Deal in

“Deal in” is broadly defined as to provide for consideration, receive for consideration, sell, buy, offer for sale, offer to purchase, import, advertise for sale, export and any other conduct to facilitate selling.

(g) Prescribed quantity, trafficable quantity and commercial quantity

The “prescribed quantity” is a quantitative limitation of cannabis plant cultivation material or dried cannabis that may be possessed or provided, or flowering cannabis plants that may be cultivated, possessed or provided as contemplated in clause 2(1) or (3), read with the definition of “prescribed quantity” in clause 1 and Schedule 3 (see paragraph 2.2.1 below). In terms of clauses 3 (see paragraph 2.3 below) and 4 (see paragraph 2.4 below), it is either a Class C or Class D offence to exceed the prescribed quantities contemplated in clause 2(1) and (3). A Class C offence is punishable with a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding four years or with both a fine and such imprisonment and a Class D offence is punishable with a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or with both a fine and such imprisonment. Clauses 3 and 4, respectively, read with the definitions of “trafficable quantity” and “commercial quantity” and Schedule 4 to the Bill, also ensure that increased penalties can be imposed by a court that are proportional to the quantity by which the “prescribed quantity” is exceeded. Trafficable quantity offences are punishable with a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six years or with both a fine and such imprisonment (Class B offence). Commercial quantity offences are punishable with a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years or with both a fine and such imprisonment (Class A offence). Trafficable and commercial quantity offences are aimed at curbing illicit dealing in cannabis.

(h) Personal use, private place, public place, possession in private and public view

“Personal use” means for the exclusive use of an adult person. “Private place” means any place, including a building, house, room, shed, hut, tent, mobile home, caravan, boat or land or any portion thereof, to which the public does not have access as of right. Public place means any place to which the public has access as of right. “Possess in private” means to keep, store, transport or be in control of cannabis or a cannabis plant, respectively, in a public place in a manner that conceals it from public view.

2.1.2 Clause 1(2) provides that the provisions of the Bill do not apply to any person who is permitted or authorised in terms of any other Act of Parliament to—

(a) deal in cannabis plant cultivation material, cannabis plants, cannabis or a cannabis product; or

(b) cultivate cannabis plants.

A “cannabis product” is defined as anything that is intended for human or animal consumption which contains THC or any other phytocannabinoid found in a cannabis plant.

2.2 Clause 2 respects the right of privacy of an adult person to use and possess cannabis and to cultivate cannabis plants as reflected in the Judgment. The clause is however subject to clauses 3, 4, 5 and 6, which impose justifiable limitation on this right, to protect other persons, including children, against the harms of cannabis.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion—

- (a) that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies; and
- (b) that it is not necessary to refer the Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
